President's Message

Welcome to 2018 My Quilting Friends,

I hope everyone enjoyed the Holidays and are now ready to participate in a new year of the "Joy of Quilting!"

For myself and my husband, we spent Christmas in Denver, Colorado visiting my sister and family. I enjoyed the festivities, but had a little difficulty with the snow and 8 degree temperatures. I don't think I will ever complain about the heat in Florida again. I think our thoughts of moving back to Western New York went out the window with the 8 degrees and snow! "Hello Florida, I'm Back!"

It doesn't seem possible we are in the year 2018 already. I still remember when George Orwell's book "1984" came out and I thought "how far away that was." Time marches on and our lives change with the times, as does our quilting experiences. We are fortunate however, to be in a time where quilting supplies and modern machines and methods make our life easier, allowing us to complete more quilts than that of our ancestors.

For Hernando Quilters' Guild, January will ring in the New Year with a busy season of various Quilt Shows to attend, more quilt shop trips, the February Challenge, Karen Pilon's Mystery Quilt Project, the beginning preparation for our own 2019 Quilt Show and the March Lakewood Retreat.

Work on the Opportunity Quilt, which was apply named (Roses Of Hernando), is almost complete and raffle tickets will be ordered soon, so we can start selling chances to support our 2019 Quilt Show preparation. The drawing will be held at the November 15, 2018 meeting at Jerome Brown Community Center.

So, until next time my quilting friends... Remember: "there are no rules about what you can create through quilting. Experiment, learn new skills, practice them, and HAVE FUN."

Fondly – Your President,
Barb Theriault

Annual Guild Christmas Luncheon – December 7th, 2017

The 2017 Christmas Luncheon was held on December 7th at Silverthorne Country Club. Everyone had a good time and it was great to be able to enjoy each other's company. We had a wonderful Chinese Auction and a special raffle basket. Our own Bonnie Hibbard accompanied us on her ukulele as she led us in some Christmas songs. The staff at Silverthorne are to be commended for their hard work and keeping everything running smoothly. The meals were also very good. We would like to thank Nancy Jenkins for all her hard work in putting this event together. Also a thank you to all the little elves that put together the Auction set up and the volunteers at the door. The team-work was great as usual.

Show and Tell (November)

Bonnie Hibbard is showing this lovely quilt she made titled – "Afternoon at Mom's"

Liesbeth DeKoning is showing us her Christmas Tree made out of Yo-Yos. Nice job!

Barb Theriault is showing the Snowman Bench Pillow she made for her sister for Christmas.

Darla Matthews has been busy this month with her Train Quilt and also her fabric weaved tote bag. Great job!

Cowboy Boots Lap Quilt made by Ruthanne McGookey. "These Boots Are Made For Walk'n!"

Jan Kibben is showing this really cute wall-hanging called "Sharing The Season." Love it!

Mary Ellen Stoy is showing her beautiful Dresden Plates in Red.

To put us in the Christmas Spirit Rosemary Willett made this 12 days of Christmas Quilt.

Ellen Green made this beautiful large and colorful quilt. Beautiful Ellen.

Sally Cosenza is showing the disappearing hour glass quilt from Bonnie DeFranco's class. Love those stars!

HOW TRUE!

The History of “Aprons”

We are seeing a rebirth of the “Apron” in many styles and colors these days, especially in the quilting world, but I don't think our kids knew what an apron was a few years back!

The principle use of Grandma's apron was to protect the dress underneath because she only had a few. It was also because it was easier to wash aprons than dresses and aprons used less material. But along with that, it served as a potholder for removing hot pans from the oven. It was wonderful for drying children's tears, and on occasion was even used for cleaning out dirty ears.

From the chicken coop, the apron was used for carrying eggs, fussy chicks, and sometimes half-hatched eggs to be finished in the warming oven.

When company came, those aprons were ideal hiding places for shy kids.. And when the weather was cold, Grandma wrapped it around her arms. Those big old aprons wiped many a perspiring brow, bent over the hot wood stove. Chips and kindling wood were brought into the kitchen in that apron.

From the garden, it carried all sorts of vegetables. After the peas had been shelled, it carried out the hulls. In the fall, the apron was used to bring in apples that had fallen from the trees.

When unexpected company drove up the road, it was surprising how much furniture that old apron could dust in a matter of seconds.

When dinner was ready, Grandma walked out onto the porch, waved her apron, and the men folk knew it was time to come in from the fields to dinner.

It will be a long time before someone invents something that will replace that 'old-time apron' that served so many purposes.

REMEMBER:

Grandma used to set her hot baked apple pies on the window sill to cool. Her granddaughters set theirs on the window sill to thaw. They would go crazy now trying to figure out how many germs were on that apron, but I don't think I ever caught anything from an apron - but love...
