President's Message

Hi Ladies,

I have been going crazy today, trying to get things done before we leave for vacation on Sunday, when I suddenly remembered that I needed to get this message off to Barb for the newsletter!

Since we had an extra day this year, I thought I would have extra time to get an additional project done....guess what? It never happened! The day came and went, and I did not use it wisely. Maybe in another leap year!

I do want to thank all the gals who volunteered for the November, 2013 Quilt Show. We only need about 15 more volunteers and we will be good to go, so please consider getting involved.

Thanks go out to Denise Jolliffe, who approached me after the meeting and volunteered to take care of the Memorial Quilt Books for the Library.

We needed someone to take over doing the neonatal quilts for Gene Chambers. She needs a rest. Ellie Fries, Viola Imhof and Bonnie Giustozzi have graciously volunteered for this task. Thank you ladies.

It won't be long before we'll be saying goodbye to our Snow-Bird friends again. Where does the time go? It seems like they just got here, doesn't it? Don't forget our April meeting will be a Pot Luck Lunch to say goodbye to those snow-birds.

I am planning on going "up north" this summer to finally meet the two not so new great grandsons. It is hard to believe they will both be toddlers by the time I see them. The best part about going home is that I can visit my very favorite quilt shop "Patched Works," owned by Trudie Hughes.

I look forward to seeing you all at the April meeting!

Eileen V.

- ❖ 2013 CHALLENGE : Mariann Ingle, as Best of Show winner for this year's challenge, will be in charge of the 2013 challenge. She has announced that it will be “Stripes and Plaids are not a Fad, but it is your 2013 Challenge.” She passed out a flyer with details at the March meeting and via e-mail where applicable. If you have any questions, please let Mariann know. Also, the challenge info will be posted to the website soon.
- ❖ QUILTING TECHNIQUES/ CLASSES - At this point in time we have no classes scheduled for the summer. Also, don't forget to pay your 50 cents and pick up the next month's block. You could be the lucky winner of enough blocks to make a really nice quilt. Also, they are always looking for volunteers to submit a block of the month pattern for future months. Stay active ---- stay creative!
- ❖ QUILT TRIPS - Our monthly quilt trips range from Mini Quilt Shop “Hops” which always include a gathering at a nearby restaurant for lunch and show & tell of our purchases to Group Quilt Show Trips. It is always a fun time to get together to shop, have lunch and exchange ideas. If you have not done so yet, please consider joining in on one of our monthly trips. Please consider volunteering to be one of the drivers so the same people are not having to drive all the time.
- ❖ DONATIONS FOR CHURCH FOOD BANK - As a membership we should be very proud of the donations we give on a regular monthly basis for the Food Bank at Holy Cross Lutheran Church. Keep up the good work. There are so many people out there needing help and it's nice to know we do our part. FREE MAKE & DONATE CLASS BY ELLIE FRIES/SHARON ALLARD

The Make & Donate free classes are run by Ellie Fries and Sharon Allard. The concept is to make one item for yourself and one to donate for our Boutique Table at our next quilt show. The patterns and instructions are supplied. Most of the items are Christmas themed because our quilt shows are held in November and people always like to purchase Christmas items at that time. The next class is May 1st and then they will resume in the fall when all the snowbirds come back. Please consider attending one of these classes. The girls have a lot of fun! See some pictures below.

Show & Tell

Ava Rossler and Betty Clark also entered the Flower Power Challenge and here are their wonderful quilts. An honorable mention is in order and a thank you for their participation..

Carol Aldridge, our Minnesota native, is showing her beautiful quilt appropriately named: "Minnesota Hot Dish." Nice job Carol.

Kathy Bixby is displaying two of her applique quilts using the back-basting method she really enjoys. Beautiful Kathy!

Denise Jolliffe made this quilt of Alaska to remind her of a recent trip she took to Alaska. Really nice Denise.

Alma Martin is showing two Neo-natal Quilts she made called Hanky Panky. If you want to make a baby quilt, this is a very good pattern for it. Nice job Alma!

Holding this adorable doll's dress is Gene Chambers. She was experimenting with her embroidery machine. Now all you need is the doll Gene!

TIPS FROM QUILTERS AROUND THE WORLD

Miscellaneous

- ❖ Since I have a busy life this is way I save a quilt project so I can work on it at my leisure. I have a large piece of felt that I have thumb tacked to one of my sewing room walls. I put sections of the quilt on this felt and can add blocks of the quilt when I have a hour to slip in and make one block and admire my work. Before long I have completed a quilt! - Merilee in Indiana
- ❖ Rubberized shelf protectors are wonderful to prevent your sewing machine foot pedal from slipping all over the place. Just cut a piece larger than your foot pedal and place it underneath the foot pedal. Also, if you have trouble with your sewing machine 'walking' across your table, this same product will help. - Joan in Tennessee
- ❖ I came up with this idea when I had a small quilt that I wanted to hang on my closet door in my sewing room, of course! I got out my plastic hooks that hang over the top of the door that I hang my Christmas wreaths on. You will need two of them. My husband finished a dowel (cut about 4 inches longer than the width of the quilt-he even put fancy ends on it) and I slipped it in the sleeve on the back and placed the rod in the hooks adjusting them to fit. My hooks are clear plastic and you can hardly seem them. This makes it very easy to change your quilts. - Judy in Nevada
- ❖ To re-sharpen your rotary cutters, fold up a piece of silver foil so that you have several layers and then just cut through it several times and your cutter will be re-sharpened.. Works great!! - Beverly in Australia
- ❖ I was trying to determine the size needed of quarter square triangles for a 12" block. I was unable to find a pattern that size, but in looking at my pattern books I discovered that you only need to add 1.25" to the size of the finished block. So, I cut my 13.25" squares, cut into four pieces, and they made perfect 12" blocks when pieced! - Debbie in Georgia

BROCCOLI SALAD

- 1 Bunch broccoli, chopped fine
 - ½ cup green onion diced
 - 1 cup raisins or dried cranberries
 - ½ cup slivered almonds or pine nuts
- Dressing:

- 1 cup mayonnaise
 - 1/3 cup sugar
 - 2 Tbls red wine or cider vinegar
- Mix dressing ingredients together and set aside.

Blanch the broccoli for 30 seconds. Add the remaining ingredients. Hold the nuts until serving time. There are variations of this salad, use your imagination. You can add shredded cheese, bacon bits or fresh grapes to the broccoli. Whatever combination you like will work.
